

The homogenization of radio in this country has ruined the quality of radio. It is not in the public interest to have the airways ruled by a small number of monolithic companies putting out the same material in dozens of stations across the country. It is not only hurting the quality of radio, it is limiting the local content of radio. Please make it more difficult for companies to dominate markets as they are doing now. We need more locally owned stations and more diverse programming.